Introduction

Together with my cousin Carol<sup>1</sup> I have spent much time searching through various parish registers and other sources for our GREEN ancestors.

The registers for St Mary's at Lambeth have furnished much of the information we have and it appears that during the nineteenth century the family spent a good part of their lives around this part of London.

Thomas GREEN was our 3xgreat-grandfather [G5], who married three times in all; his father, shown on the marriage certificate of Thomas and his third wife Sarah BARNETT<sup>2</sup>, was Richard, a sawyer.

Thomas, shown at the bottom of the chart, was my great-grandfather (G3). My family history is traced from this point forward in a separate booklet.

G6 – GREEN family

My 4xgt-grandfather was Richard GREEN, a sawyer<sup>1</sup>.

His son Thomas was born about 1801<sup>2</sup>, indicating that Richard was born between about 1760 and 1780. It seems that Richard married a Mary and it is likely that he came from Middlesex (see information on page 10).

The IGI gives only six instances of the marriage of a Richard GREEN to a Mary in Middlesex between 1780 and 1800:

- Mary CLARK, 29 MAY 1780, St Leonard's, Shoreditch
- Mary HAWLING, 17 APR 1787, St Sepulchre
- Mary HILL, 12 JUN 1798, St Bride, Fleet Street
- Mary FLAVELL, 18 DEC 1798, St Martin-in-the-Fields, Westminster
- Mary EARETH, 02 DEC 1799, St Giles, Cripplegate
- Mary FRISBY, 28 SEP 1800, Old Church, St Pancras

Just which – if any – of these marriages is the 'right' one may never be known, although the first one is probably too early.

The 1841 census gives only four instances of a Richard GREEN living in Middlesex and born between 1760 and 1780:

- One, aged 67<sup>3</sup>, was a 'victualler' living at 'Sign: the General Elliott' (and therefore possibly an inn or public house); he had not been born in Middlesex;
- One, an 'ag lab' aged 65<sup>4</sup>, was with many others at 'Wild Passage', Finsbury St Giles;
- One was living at 54 Queen Street, Marylebone<sup>5</sup>. He was aged 65 and had not been born in Middlesex; his trade was that of a cheesemonger and there were four others of the same surname at the same address, possibly three children and a grandchild;
- One was at 'Longford', Harmondsworth (near Staines)<sup>6</sup> with (presumably) his wife Mary; he was 65 and she 56. He had not been born in Middlesex and his occupation was shown as 'L C', in common with many others on the same page.

There is no reason to assume that any of these is my ancestor, although the last one above is tempting, with wife Mary – although her age gives a YoB of 1785, rather too young to have borne a son in 1801. It is easily possible that he had died before 1841.

Richard's death has not been found conclusively, although he died before 1850<sup>7</sup>. The ONS records the death of a Richard GREEN, registered in Shoreditch<sup>8</sup>, in 1843 and this is one possibility; it may refer to the Richard found above (that married Mary CLARK), but there is no firm evidence that this is the Richard I am seeking.

There is only one death of a Mary GREEN registered in Shoreditch before 1841<sup>1</sup> – but, like so much else in this section, it cannot be confirmed that she was part of my family.

It is likely that the two deaths found above refer to the Richard and Mary who were married at St Leonard's, Shoreditch, in 1780 but, alas, unlikely that they were my ancestors.

G5 – GREEN family

Thomas GREEN, my 3xgt-grandfather, was born in about 1801<sup>1</sup>; his father was Richard GREEN, a sawyer<sup>2</sup>, who died before 1850 and probably before 1841<sup>3</sup>.

The IGI gives just three possibilities for Thomas, son of Richard, born 1793-1803: in all cases the parents were Richard and Mary (though not necessarily, of course, the same ones).

- bapt. 17 FEB 1793 (born 13 DEC 1792) St Luke, Old Street, Finsbury)
- bapt. 01 DEC 1797 St James, Westminster
- bapt. 28 JAN 1802 (born 21 JAN) Lying-in Hospital, Endell Street, Holborn

The 1841 census return<sup>4</sup> (when Thomas was living at Chertsey) states simply that he had not been born in the county – that is, he was not born in Surrey. The 1851 census return<sup>5</sup> gives his place of birth as ‘London’, and putting these two results together I have deduced that he had been born in Middlesex.

Thomas was an engineer in his early life<sup>6</sup>. His marriage to our 3xgreat-grandmother, Mary PUCKNELL, took place on 12 JAN 1834<sup>7</sup> at St Mary, Lambeth; this was his second marriage<sup>8</sup>. They lived in Bird Street in Lambeth<sup>9</sup> and while living here they had two children: Ann Maria (13 JUL 1834) and Thomas George (04 SEP 1836)<sup>10</sup>. Bird Street was a continuation of Monkton Street, close to the Lambeth Workhouse and not very far from a timber yard. By 1914 it had become part of Monkton Street and today appears to have been renamed Sullivan Road.

The 1841 census holds four records of a Thomas GREEN with wife Mary and son Thomas, all of approximately the right age. Mary died and was buried at St Mary’s on 04 JUL 1845 at the age of 45<sup>11</sup> (always assuming that this is the ‘right’ Mary).

address	Thomas’s occupation	Mary’s YoB	Thomas’s YoB	other children
Cox’s Lock & Mills, Chertsey	ag lab	1811	1836	Susan (1829); Mary (1830); William (1838); Elizabeth (1840)

None of these entries show Mary with a date of birth anywhere near 1800 and so the burial record found may well not be the right one. None of these entries is beyond doubt the 'right' one. However, on later evidence<sup>1</sup> it does appear that the first entry – that in Chertsey – is 'my' family, although there is no explanation of why they should be in that part of the county.

Assuming that this first 1841 census entry<sup>2</sup> is correct, there is no record of Ann Maria (neither has a burial for her been found), but it does show two children from (presumably) Thomas's first marriage; Susan (1829) and Mary (1830).

A Susan Piper GREEN was baptised at St Mary, Lambeth, on 18 FEB 1829; her parents were Thomas and Susan. Thomas and Susan also baptised a second child, Mary, on 25 AUG 1830. From the evidence of the 1841 census return it is at least possible that these were the children of Thomas's first marriage and that Susan was Thomas's first wife (and possible, too, that her maiden name had been PIPER). A problem with this theory is that the baptism register entries for both Susan and Mary give Thomas's profession as 'shoemaker'. Moreover, the only marriage recorded in the IGI of a Susan PIPER in the entire British Isles between 1810 and 1830 took place at St James, Paddington, on 27 JUL 1817 with Thomas GREEN. As Thomas had been born around 1800 this is not likely to be the right marriage.

Between 1820 and 1830 there was only one marriage of a Thomas GREEN to a Susan in the London area – to Susannah RAMSEY at St Leonard's, Shoreditch, on 14 JAN 1821. If this is indeed the correct marriage then there are likely to have been other children born between 1822 and 1829, possibly in the Shoreditch area, although as we shall see, Thomas tended to move around! All these suppositions do assume that the vital events in the life of 'my' Thomas appear in the IGI.

The only burial of a Susan(na) GREEN in Surrey between 1830 and 1835 recorded in the National Burial Index is that of one aged 36 at All Saints, Kingston, on 05 JUN 1832. This is a possibility but unlikely.

In 1834 Thomas married again, to Mary PUCKNELL, at Lambeth<sup>3</sup>, as mentioned above, and two children – Ann Maria and Thomas George – were born.

For some reason not yet explained the family then seems to have moved from Lambeth to Hammersmith, where William was baptised<sup>4</sup> in 1838. The family appears in the 1841 census at Chertsey<sup>5</sup>, as already discussed, with children Susan, Mary, Thomas, William and an Elizabeth aged 6 months. Unusually for the 1841 census, Thomas's age is not rounded but given as 43, indicating a YoB of 1798; Mary's age is given as 30 although this is open to doubt (see the preceding argument). No baptism or relevant birth registration of an Elizabeth has been found.

Shortly afterwards they moved even further west to Weybridge where another son, George, was born on 03 APR 1843<sup>6</sup> and baptised a few months later on 02 JUL 1843 at St James's Church<sup>7</sup>. The family then moved (possibly) yet again, this time back to Edward Street in Lambeth, where Mary died and was buried at St Mary's on 04 JUL 1845 at the age of 45<sup>1</sup>. However, it is equally likely that she died any time between 1843 and the end of the decade, anywhere between Chertsey and Lambeth!

On 07 APR 1850 Thomas married for the third time, this time to Sarah BARNETT<sup>2</sup>. Sarah was a widow and had at least four children from her earlier marriage<sup>3</sup>: Henry (1834), Mary (1838), Alfred (1846) and Susannah (or Susan) (1848). At the time of the 1841 census she was living with husband Thomas and children Thomas (7) and Mary (3) in College Street<sup>4</sup> (off Waterloo Road), Lambeth. The ONS records the death of only one Thomas BARNETT between 1841 and 1851, in 1844<sup>5</sup>.

At the date of their marriage, both were living at 35 Berkeley Street but a year later, at the time of the 1851 census, Thomas and Sarah were living at 9 Belvedere Crescent<sup>6</sup>; this address was close to the south bank of the Thames, near Hungerford Bridge, which was a footbridge at this date. They were with Thomas, William and George as well as four of Sarah's children who were shown as 'visitors': Henry (17), Mary (13), Alfred (5) and Susan (3). Both on the marriage certificate and in the census entry Thomas is described as a sawyer, as was his father Richard. Clearly Mary is the daughter who was with Sarah in the 1841 census but Henry appears to have replaced son Thomas; and apparently Alfred and Susan were born after Thomas's death (Thomas the husband of Sarah, that is)! They could, of course, be relatives other than her children, although in a later (1861) census they are shown as her children.

All these moves may have been driven by Thomas's job (Thomas GREEN, my 3xgreat-grandfather). If the family has been correctly identified in the 1841 census he was at that time a labourer. When George was baptised (1843) he was an engineer<sup>7</sup>, yet by 1851 he was a sawyer<sup>8</sup>, having adopted his father's profession. 'Engineer' did not, in the early 19th century, have the meaning it has today; rather, it could have indicated any job working with machinery or equipment rather than as a manual labourer. In fact, when Thomas registered George's birth he 'made his mark' on the certificate, probably indicating that he was unable to write.

No children resulting from this third marriage (Thomas and Sarah) have been found. The record of Thomas's death has not yet been found, although he died probably between the end of 1857 (he is shown as a 'sawyer' on son Thomas's marriage certificate, in October 1857) and April 1861 (the 1861 census shows Sarah as a widow, still living at Belvedere Crescent<sup>9</sup>). There are three possibilities registered in Lambeth: two in late 1857<sup>10</sup> and one in early 1861<sup>11</sup>.

<sup>6</sup> Belvedere Crescent was formerly known as Ragged Row, probably from the tumbledown condition of the old cottages which bordered it. Perhaps unsurprisingly in view of Green being such a common name, it has proved remarkably difficult to trace the various children.

Susan Piper (1828 – ?)

Susan was baptised at Lambeth on 18 FEB 1828<sup>1</sup>; her parents were Thomas and Susan and the address was 'Norfolk Place, Vauxhall'; Thomas's occupation was 'shoemaker'. She is listed in the 1841 census return<sup>2</sup> (without the 'Piper'), with parents Thomas and Mary and siblings Thomas, William and Elizabeth. Ten years later a possible census entry<sup>3</sup> for her is as a housemaid with John Pike and his family in Peckham.

Mary (1830 – ?)

Mary was baptised on 25 AUG 1830<sup>4</sup>, and she appears in the 1841 census return at Chertsey. She has not been found in the next census, and may have died – there are several possibilities.

Ann Maria (1834 – ?)

Ann was baptised on 13 JUL 1834<sup>5</sup>. She does not appear in the 1841 census with the rest of her family; it is likely that she had died, but no record of her death has been found. As the family was in Lambeth in 1836 and in Hammersmith by 1838 her burial might not be easy to trace.

Thomas George (1836 – 1912)

Thomas George was my great-great-grandfather; he was baptised at St Mary, Lambeth, on 04 SEP 1836<sup>6</sup>. In 1851 he was living with his parents (rather, father and step-mother) in Belvedere Crescent; he married in 1857 and his story is continued on page 15.

William (1838 – ?)

William was baptised at Hammersmith on 21 JAN 1838. In 1851 the census return shows him, aged 13, as an 'errand boy' living with his father and step-mother Sarah. The following census, that of 1861, records only two instances of a William GREEN born in Hammersmith and of approximately the right age, but neither is obviously the 'right' one. He may have died between the two censuses; there are five possibilities.

Elizabeth (1840 – ?)

Like her half-sister Mary, Elizabeth does not appear in the 1851 census and had presumably died before she was 10. Again, there are several possible death registrations.

George (1843 – ?)

016P

No conclusive further record has been found.

G4 – GREEN Family

Thomas George GREEN, eldest son of Thomas and Mary, married Martha Jane LILLISTONE, Nathaniel and Sarah's second daughter, on 11 OCT 1857 at St Thomas, Stepney<sup>1</sup>. Thomas George was a 'mason'; his father Thomas was a 'sawyer'. The witnesses were Nathaniel and Sarah LILLISTONE; one might have expected Thomas to have signed as a witness at his son's wedding so it is possible that he had died by then, although the marriage certificate does not state this to be so.

There is, as yet, no explanation of how Thomas, from Lambeth, met a girl from Stepney. However, we have already discovered that his father Thomas moved around, presumably because of his job as first an engineer and then as a Sawyer; he may even have been born in Stepney. It is likely that he met Martha's father, a carpenter, either through family friendships or in the course of business.

A year later, when Thomas and Martha's first child (Thomas George again!) was born on 11 AUG 1858 the family was living at 17 Charles Street, Stepney<sup>2</sup>, the same street that housed Martha's sister Mary Honor's future husband John BOLUS (see Appendix 0170 on page 40). The birth certificate of Thomas George shows parents Thomas George GREEN, journeyman slate mason, and Martha Jane GREEN, formerly LILLISTONE. Contrary to popular belief, the term 'journeyman' comes not from the word 'journey' but from the French 'journée' and refers to a workman paid by the day. This implies what we should probably now call 'casual' work rather than permanent employment and in this sense could, of course, mean someone who moved from place to place seeking work.

Martha Janet, the second child, was born in Lambeth<sup>3</sup> in June 1860; so between the births of the first two children – so sometime between August 1858 and June 1860 – the family moved from Stepney back to Lambeth<sup>4</sup>: the 1861 census return<sup>5</sup> shows them at Pratt Street. The move was again, presumably, dictated by Thomas's job. Pratt Street, now Pratt Walk, dates from 1775 and is a turning off Lambeth Road opposite Lambeth Palace Gardens; it was named after the family of the wife and mother of Sir Joseph Mawbey, Bart, who held the copyhold of the land.

The 1871 and 1881 census returns show Thomas GREEN, slate mason, and wife Martha living at 4 Granby Buildings, Lambeth<sup>6</sup>. (The Post Office Directory for 1905 showed that Granby Buildings were between 24 and 48 Broad Street, on the south side. Broad Street has since been renamed to Black Prince Road, and it is off the Albert Embankment. The Buildings, sandwiched between Vauxhall Walk and the railway line, have now been demolished.) They shared the house with three sons – Thomas (1858), slate mason; John (1865), printer's assistant; and William (1873) – and five daughters – Martha (1861), laundress; Sarah (1863); Susan (1867); Kate (1869); Hetty (1875); and Ada (1880). The family is shown in the chart. With the exception of Thomas, who was born in Stepney as was his mother, all the children were born in Lambeth.

Martha Jane died aged 45 on 13 MAR 1884<sup>1</sup>; the death, from chronic gastritis, cirrhosis of the liver and exhaustion, was registered in Lambeth by her husband.

The 1891 census shows Thomas GREEN, slate mason (and widower), still living at 4 Granby Buildings<sup>2</sup>. As well as Susannah, 'ironer/wash' (presumably Susan from 1881), and Ada, John W, a craneboy, is shown. His age indicates that he is not the 'John William' born in 1864 but his younger brother William (1873). The family occupied three of the rooms at no. 4.

Close by, possibly in the same tenement, at 1 Granby Buildings, was a 45-year-old widow, Mary Ann DILLON, with two daughters, Annie and Emma. She had married Samuel in 1875<sup>3</sup>. Six years later the 1881 census had recorded Samuel, a whitesmith, and Mary Ann (nee STONE) living at Castle Street, St Giles<sup>4</sup>, with four daughters: Mary Anne (1876), Annie (1878), Rosie (1879) and Elizabeth (1880). Samuel had died in 1886 aged only 36<sup>5</sup>.

Thomas married Mary Ann DILLON<sup>6</sup> towards the end of 1891<sup>7</sup>. The 1901 census return<sup>8</sup> shows them still living at 4 Granby Buildings, with Mary's daughter Annie, now aged 23; but ten years later the census return of 1911<sup>9</sup> shows Thomas and Mary living in Bermondsey, at 27 Freda Street (Abbey Street) in four rooms, together with Ada AINGE, a 13-year-old granddaughter. The census return confirms the marriage date of 1891 and shows that there were no children from this marriage. Ada was the daughter of Susannah, Thomas's fifth child, who had married George AINGE (see later).

Thomas died at the age of 75 at 28 Tranton Road on 24 FEB 1912<sup>10</sup>. The death certificate shows his occupation was still that of slate mason; son Thomas George, of 60 The Albany, Albany Road, Camberwell, was the informant. A probable death for Mary Ann was in the following year, 1913<sup>11</sup>.

Thomas George (1858 – 1932)

008

Thomas George, my great-grandfather, was born on 11 AUG 1858<sup>12</sup>, while the family was living in Stepney (Mile End Old Town). As already noted, the 1881 census return<sup>13</sup> records the family living at 4 Granby Buildings, Lambeth. Thomas, who by now was aged 22 and a slate mason like his father, was still at home; next door at no. 3 was a Frederick DELLA ROCCA with his wife Anne. One of Frederick's cousins was Ellen Dawson DELLA ROCCA (see the DELLA ROCCA file for further information); her (illegitimate) daughter was Clara Sarah Mary Ann. It is mere speculation concerning how Thomas and Clara met but meet they did, as Thomas George GREEN and Clara Sarah Mary Ann DELLA ROCCA were two of my

G6 – PUCKNELL family

No information has been found of this family, except that Mary PUCKNELL was our 4xgt-grandmother; she married Thomas GREEN on 12 JAN 1834<sup>1</sup> and was buried on 04 JUL 1845<sup>2</sup> at the age of 45<sup>1</sup> (although even this burial might not be of the 'right' person).

The 1841 census return<sup>3</sup> (the only one in which she appears) shows that she had not been born in Surrey. It is reasonable to assume, if the burial above is the 'right' one, that she was born about 1800, although the 1841 census indicates that she had been born about ten years later than this. Her baptism has not yet been confirmed; the IGI records only three instances of the baptism of a Mary PUCKNELL between 1790 and 1812:

25 JAN 1803	Hadlow, Kent	parents: James PUCKNALL, Priscilla
06 JAN 1805	Tonbridge, Kent	parents: James PUCKNELL, Susan BETTS
02 JUN 1811	St Mary's, Portsea, Hampshire	parents: William PUCKNELL, Hannah

but there is no reason to assume that any of these is necessarily my relative.

G6 – LILLISTONE family

The evidence collected to date indicates the very strong probability that my 4xgt-grandparents on this family branch were Nathaniel LILLISTONE and Ann PENNING.

According to the 1841 census return, Nathaniel had been born in Witnesham, Suffolk, a small village about two miles north of Ipswich, in about 1780<sup>1</sup>; this birth has not yet been found in the parish register, but it is shown in the IGI in connection with his two marriages (see below), both of which took place at Kirton, a village about 11 miles south-east of Witnesham.

On 19 JAN 1804 he married Mary Field BROOKS<sup>2</sup>, spinster. She had been born at Kirton on 19 APR 1780<sup>3</sup> and was a daughter of William FIELD and Mary BROOKS<sup>4</sup>. However, the marriage lasted only a few short months before Mary died on 20 APR 1804<sup>5</sup> aged 24. She was buried a fortnight later on 03 MAY 1804<sup>6</sup> although, rather confusingly, the register refers to her as the 'daughter of Robert [sic] FIELD and Mary BROOKS' (a note in the register states 'late Mary Field BROOKS, spinster').

The only other entry around this time in the marriage register for a Nathaniel LILLISTONE is for a marriage on 10 JUL 1804<sup>7</sup>. Nathaniel is shown as a widower and, although it seems rather unlikely, especially as there were no dependent children, it seems that having buried his wife of only three months Nathaniel wasted no time in marrying for a second time ten weeks later.

This time the bride was Ann PENNING<sup>8</sup>, who was just 21. Ten children from Nathaniel and Ann's marriage have been found<sup>9</sup> and they are shown in the chart; most, if not all, were baptised at Kirton and this is where the family lived for some years.

In 1841 Nathaniel was a carpenter<sup>10</sup> living in 'Kirton County Parish'. Ann died on 07 SEP 1843<sup>11</sup> at the age of 60; the address given was simply 'Kirton'. At the time of the next census, in 1851<sup>12</sup>, Nathaniel was lodging with the HOUCHIN family at Brandeston, 17 miles north of Kirton.

He survived his wife Ann by 13 years, dying on 14 JAN 1856<sup>13</sup>. His age was given as 75, which confirms the estimate of his birth given above. He died at Kirton, so he must have returned from Brandeston. The certificate confirms that he was a carpenter; the cause of death was 'accidental death from a fall on to the ground causing a concussion of the brain'.

James was born on 21 FEB 1805 and baptised just less than two months later on 14 APR 1805<sup>1</sup>. There is no record of a James in the 1841 census, but the death of a James LILLISTONE at Kirton<sup>2</sup> in 1842 has been found and this is a distinct possibility.

Nathaniel (1806 – 1870)

The second son, Nathaniel, was my gt-gt-grandfather. He was born on 03 APR 1806 and baptised the next day, 04 APR 1806<sup>3</sup>. The story continues on page 22.

John (1807 – 1809)

034N

John was born 30 NOV 1807 and baptised on 27 DEC 1807<sup>4</sup>. He died less than 16 months later and was buried on 27 APR 1809<sup>5</sup>.

034P

Eliza was baptised on 07 MAR 1813. She married James CLARKE at Ipswich on 22 JUL 1839<sup>9</sup>.

John (1814 – 1893)<sup>10</sup>

John was born on 20 OCT 1814 and baptised a little over two months later on 08 JAN 1815. He married Sarah BURTON in 1839.

Honour (1816 – 1818)

034R

The Kirton register shows that Honour, daughter of Nathaniel and Ann, was baptised on 10 MAY 1818<sup>11</sup>. The IGI shows that she was born on 20 DEC 1816 and that she died 'before 1818'. The name Honour is uncommon; but this unusual name is repeated in a later generation.

Sarah Ann (1818 – 1828)

Sarah Ann was born on 04 DEC 1818 and baptised some four months later on 11 APR 1818<sup>12</sup>. She died aged only 9 and was buried on 31 OCT 1828<sup>13</sup>.

G5 – LILLISTONE family

Nathaniel LILLISTONE, the second son of Nathaniel and Ann, and Sarah READ, fourth daughter of Lewis and Ann/Diana, were married on 08 FEB 1835<sup>1</sup> in St Paul's, The Highway, Shadwell. Five children from the marriage have been found; all were baptised in St Anne's church, Limehouse<sup>2</sup> (now part of Tower Hamlets).

In 1841 Nathaniel and the two eldest children were living in Ratcliff, a district of Stepney<sup>3</sup>. The census return states that Nathaniel was born in about 1803, 'not in county' – i.e. not in Middlesex. There is no mention of their mother Sarah. However, a Sarah LILESTON aged 30 was shown in the household of Charles and Jane SHELLEY in St John Hampstead<sup>4</sup>, though the census return records that she was born 'in county' (i.e. Middlesex) whereas Nathaniel's wife had been born in Plaistow, Essex. It would be good to believe that Jane was Sarah's sister but unfortunately no such sister has been found (see page 22 for Sarah's family). However, John LILLISTONE, Sarah's brother-in-law, lived only a few hundred yards away in New End Square and it is possible that this Sarah was indeed the wife of Nathaniel.

The 1841 census return also records a Sarah LILLYSTONE, age 30, living in Bermondsey – but she was the wife of Robert and they had a family of three children living with them.

The family has been found in the 1851 census<sup>5</sup> (where the name was transcribed as 'Elliston'), although on this occasion Nathaniel was not present (and he has not been found elsewhere). Sarah and all five children were living together in Mile End, in one of a small row of houses set back from the line of what is now Ben Johnson Road. In 1851 it was known as 'World's End', which in fact was the name of the alehouse at the end of the road<sup>6</sup>. It has now been swallowed up in the Ocean Estate, a predominantly Bangladeshi area.

Nathaniel died in the Mile End Workhouse on 01 APR 1870<sup>7</sup> of 'cerebral disease, paralysis' – perhaps a stroke. The certificate shows his age as 62, placing his birthdate between APR 1807 and APR 1808. This differs slightly from his birthdate as recorded in the baptism register at Kirton (03 APR 1806) although this may not be significant. The informant was A W Beck, presumably an official at the Workhouse. However, his burial took place at Victoria Park Cemetery, Hackney, on 07 APR 1870<sup>8</sup>. The record shows that the burial took place six days after his death (confirming the above date) and that he was 64 – which puts his year of birth as 1805-1806. No doubt his family had a better idea of his true age than did the Workhouse. Furthermore, his 'place of abode' was given as 53 Charles Street, Stepney, so presumably the family took him from the workhouse and buried him from there. I have found no record of the Lillistone family living in Charles Street, although their son-in-law John BOLUS lived at no. 12 in 1863, and in 1858 Thomas George Green (their first grandchild) was born at no. 17. Only six years later Victoria Park Cemetery became a park, or a recreation ground, and is now Meath Gardens, Bethnal Green. It is bounded by the Grand Union Canal and a railway line. It seems that the cemetery was never consecrated and was one of the new private cemeteries that sprang up following the closure of the London churchyards when they became full.

On the marriage certificate of his son John William (05 DEC 1870) there is no indication that Nathaniel is deceased, but he is not shown as one of the witnesses to the wedding<sup>1</sup>.

By 1871, a year after Nathaniel's death, Sarah was living at 72 Euston Square, Marylebone, as housekeeper to a 26-year-old General Practitioner, Joseph MITCHELL; she has not been found in the 1881 census. She died at 86 Kerbey Street, Poplar, on 22 OCT 1889 aged 81<sup>2</sup>; this confirms that she was born about 1808. Her death was registered by her niece, E C REED, of 91 Giraud Street, Poplar; this was Eliza C., the daughter of Sarah's brother Lewis (see Appendix 035M).

G6 – REED (READ) family

The READ (or REED) family originates from West Ham, on the borders of Essex. The line has been traced back to Ann (or Diana) and Lewis READ.

A likely marriage is that recorded in the IGI at St Mary's, Whitechapel, in 1794<sup>1</sup>; the bride's name is shown as Dinah FORSTER.

Lewis and Dinah (Diana?) had seven children. All were baptised at All Saints, West Ham<sup>2</sup>.

Lewis REED was born in about 1774, according to the entry in the 1841 census return<sup>3</sup>, which shows Lewis and (presumably) daughter Charlotte living in West Ham.

The baptism entry for each of the first two children, Thomas and Charlotte, gives Ann as the mother's name; but that for the youngest four gives Diana. Mary Ann's mother was 'Dinah'. However, the entries for both Charlotte (1798) and Sarah (1808) give the mother's maiden name as FOSTER and it is likely, therefore, that Ann and Diana were the same person – it is possible that Lewis married first an Ann FOSTER and then a Diana FOSTER but rather too much of a coincidence.

It is likely that Ann (Diana) died in 1838<sup>4</sup>; Lewis died in 1849<sup>5</sup>.

Thomas REED (1796 – ?1862)

035I

Thomas, the eldest son, was born in about 1796 and baptised on 01 JAN 1797. It seems that he married a Mary, about seven years younger than he was, as the 1841 census return<sup>6</sup> shows Thomas and Mary living in West Ham, very close to Thomas's father Lewis, with four children<sup>7</sup>. Thomas was a thatcher. Ten years later the 1851 census return<sup>8</sup> shows him and Mary living at the same address, although his occupation was that of 'road layer'. The youngest three children were still living with their parents. There is no Thomas nor Mary living in West Ham in the 1861 census and it is likely that they had both died by this time: there are three references to the death of a Thomas REED around 1861<sup>9</sup> and several references for Mary REED between 1854 and 1863.

Charlotte REED (1798 – 1846)

035J

Charlotte was born in JUL 1798 and baptised on 27 JUL 1798<sup>10</sup>. No marriage has been found and a probable death was in 1846<sup>11</sup>.

Lewis REED (1806 – 1896)<sup>12</sup>

035M

Lewis, the second son, was born in Plaistow, Essex, on 17 OCT 1806 and baptised the next month. He married Caroline in 1838 and they had at least ten children.

Sarah (1808 – 1889)

Sarah, the sixth child and fourth daughter, was born on 15 JUN 1808 and baptised five weeks later on 24 JUL 1808<sup>1</sup>. She is one of my gt-gt-gt-grandmothers and her story is continued on page 22.

Other children

No details are known for any of the remaining children other than dates of baptism<sup>2</sup>:

Mary Ann was born in DEC 1799 and baptised on 05 JAN 1800 at the age of three weeks;

Ann was born 12 NOV 1804 and baptised 02 DEC 1804; a possible marriage was on 11 DEC 1822 to Alexander WILSON at West Ham<sup>3</sup> although no corresponding entry has been found in the 1841 census return.

Charlotte was born 24 MAR 1813 and baptised 18 APR 1813.

It is likely that the first Charlotte died as an infant and, for reasons explained in Appendix 035M, it is also likely that the Lewis described above died young.

Further research to be done

The list below does not include the ever-present research into tracing the various families further into the past, but highlights particular unresolved problems that have occurred to date.

071 – Ann (Diana) FOSTER

Were Ann and Diana the same person?

032 – Thomas GREEN

Can his birthdate be established? Can the name of his first wife be confirmed? Why should he have travelled so extensively, from Lambeth to Hammersmith to Weybridge then back to Lambeth? Is he likely to have changed profession from shoemaker to engineer to agricultural labourer to sawyer? Can the date of his death be established?

034 / 035 – Nathaniel and Sarah LILLISTONE

Sarah has not been found in 1841; Nathaniel has not been found in 1851.

034M – James LILLISTONE

Born 21 FEB 1805, baptised 14 APR 1805; no record of death or appearance in any census.

034R – Honour LILLISTONE

Kirton register shows baptism 10 MAY 1818; IGI shows baptism on 20 DEC and death 'before 1818'; which, if either, is correct?

034P – Eliza LILLISTONE

Baptised 07 MAR 1813 at Kirton, married 22 JUL 1839 at Ipswich, living in Ipswich in 1850. What was the relationship of Mary Ann (probably) LILLISTONE, a 'visitor' in 1851?

035M – Lewis REED

His year of birth, as reported in several census returns, was about 1815; the baptism register shows 1806. Was this the baptism of an earlier Lewis who died young? All Saints, West Ham, has no baptism of a Lewis REED around 1815. Did he marry Caroline HART or Caroline DUNCAN? Either is possible.

016M – Ann Maria GREEN

No record of Ann, beyond her baptism on 13 JUL 1834, has been found.

016N – William GREEN

William was baptised at Hammersmith on 21 JAN 1838. There appear to be no further record.

008P John William GREEN

No record in 1891 census, but found in all others; no record of marriage apart from name Sarah Elizabeth.

008S – William GREEN

Born c 1873; missing from 1901 census although Carol has found hi in 1911.

Other Lillistone families

A Mary Ann LILLISTONE appears in the 1851, 1881, 1891 and 1901 census returns<sup>1</sup> with YoB c1838, PoB SFK Butley. She died in 1903<sup>2</sup>.

Appendices

The following pages provide details about collateral ancestors – that is, about the siblings of my direct ancestors.

They are arranged first by generation (eldest first) and then by age.

Appendix 034P – Eliza LILLISTONE (1813 – 1893)

Eliza was baptised at Kirton on 07 MAR 1813<sup>1</sup>. She married James CLARKE<sup>2</sup> at Ipswich on 22 JUL 1839<sup>3</sup>. He was a ‘horse keeper’ from Weeley, in Essex, and about the same age.

The 1841 census return<sup>4</sup> shows them living in Stratford St Mary, a village just within Suffolk but right on the Essex border.

They had six children; the ONS references (all were registered in Ipswich) for each are given below<sup>5</sup>. By 1851 the family was living in Ipswich. The census return of that year<sup>6</sup> shows James and Eliza with four children. As well as their own Mary Ann, a ‘visitor’, Mary Ann, was also in the house. Her surname is indistinct, looking like ‘Linghamstone’ but is probably Lillistone, although her relationship to James isn’t given. James was an ‘hostler’. Ten years later<sup>7</sup> they had moved house, still within Ipswich, and three of the younger children, Phoebe, James, and ‘Onnah’ were living with their parents – apparently the enumerator hadn’t come across ‘Honnor’ as a name before.

Phoebe, the fourth child, was still living with her parents in 1871 at the same address<sup>8</sup>, and the census return for that year also shows Honor, aged 15, with occupation ‘spinster’. The ‘place of birth’ in the 1871 census return shows, in each case, merely the county and it is possible that the information was given by somebody other than a member of the family.

James died in 1872 aged 57<sup>9</sup>. Eliza married again in 1876<sup>10</sup>, to a William TURNER, and at the time of the next census<sup>11</sup> they were living in the same road (probably the same house, although this cannot be confirmed) that Eliza had lived in for the past decade or more.

William was a labourer. The 1891 census return<sup>12</sup> shows William and Eliza, both aged 70.

A likely death for Eliza is in 1893, at the age of 80<sup>13</sup>. It is likely that William died around 1900 – there are four registrations of the death of a William TURNER, all of roughly the same age, between 1899 and 1903.

Appendix 034Q – John LILLISTONE (1814 – 1893)

John, a younger brother of my gt-gt-gt-grandfather Nathaniel, was born on 20 OCT 1814<sup>1</sup> and baptised a little over two months later on 08 JAN 1815 in Kirton, Suffolk<sup>2</sup>.

On 03 DEC 1839<sup>3</sup>, in Trinity Church, St Marylebone, he married Sarah BURTON<sup>4</sup>, who was anything up to ten years older than he (depending on which census return is consulted). She came from Widford, in Hertfordshire, which is about halfway between Hertford and Bishops Stortford. The IGI shows the baptism of a Sarah BURTON at Widford on 12 FEB 1804 and this is probably the right Sarah, confirmed by the age at death (see below). Her parents were James and Mary.

John and Sarah appear in the 1851 census return<sup>5</sup>, living in New End Square, Hampstead – and they were to remain at this address for the rest of their married life. His age is shown as 37, hers as 40; he is a ‘timekeeper’. The following three returns, those of 1861<sup>6</sup>, 1871<sup>7</sup> and 1881<sup>8</sup>, show the couple at the same address but with John now a carpenter: the ages given are 41 and 50, 57 and 62, and 57 and 68 (although this last is clearly written as 57 it is ten years too young and was possibly misheard by the enumerator).

The fact that there are no children shown in any census return suggests that there were no children from the marriage; although the 1871 census shows the couple together with Ellen M LILLISTONE, a 15-year-old niece born in Hampstead. She was the daughter of William, one of John’s younger brothers.

Sarah died in 1883 at the age of 79<sup>9</sup> (thus indicating a year of birth of 1804); the death was registered in Hampstead. The 1891 census shows John, by now a widower and a ‘retired carpenter’ living at the same address as previously, but now as a lodger; the household ‘head’ was a 23-year-old ‘lady companion’ sharing the house with her aunt, a 59-year-old widow.

John died in 1893; the age on the registration certificate was 79<sup>10</sup>. The details of his Will<sup>11</sup> reveal “LILLISTONE John of 1 New End Square Hampstead Middlesex, carpenter, died 28 November 1893, Probate London 28 February to Ety LOVELL Spinster Effects £26 8s.” This was the 44-year-old daughter of Sarah LOVELL; both lived at Mount Lodge, Flask Walk, Hampstead, which was a matter of yards from John’s address.

Appendix 034U – William LILLISTONE (1822 – 1860)

William was the third son of that name born to Nathaniel and Ann. The first, born 28 SEP 1809, died in FEB 1812, and it is assumed that the second, baptised on 22 APR 1821, also died. William III was born on 16 JAN 1822<sup>1</sup> and baptised 05 APR 1822 at Kirton the same year. He has not been found in either the 1841 or 1851 census returns.

He married Maria BURTON on 26 FEB 1852 at Old Church, St Pancras<sup>2</sup>. According to the 1861 census she had been born in Widford, Hertfordshire in about 1832; she was almost certainly related to Sarah, who married William's elder brother John (see the previous section). As there was a difference of almost 30 years between Sarah and Maria it is likely that they were aunt and niece.

William died in 1860<sup>3</sup> after only eight years of marriage; his death was registered in Poplar. Maria appears in the 1861 census<sup>4</sup> as a widow and a housekeeper, with daughter Ellen Maria, aged 5, living at Heath Side Cottage, Heath End, Hampstead. Maria's birthplace is shown clearly as 'Whitford'. There are only two places named Whitford in the UK; one is in Flintshire and the other in Devon, so this is almost certainly a mishearing of Widford.

The following census, that of 1871<sup>5</sup>, records Maria as a housemaid, still in Hampstead, but in the household of Mr and Mrs NEILL. The record clearly gives her age as 49 (it should be 39). Ellen has already been found, staying (or living?) with Maria's brother-in-law John and his wife (see the previous section).

In the 1881 census<sup>6</sup> Maria and Ellen were living in the same household – they were both servants of James HAYWOOD, a JP in Kensington. Maria was a housemaid and her daughter a kitchenmaid.

At the time of the 1891 census<sup>7</sup> both mother and daughter were living in Fulham. Maria was a 'lodging housekeeper'; she died four years later, aged 66<sup>8</sup>. The death was registered in Fulham.

There is a record of an Ellen M LILLISTONE marrying Sidney PRYKE in 1912<sup>9</sup>. Ellen would have been 56 at the time, and the marriage was registered in Bosmere, Suffolk; the marriage seems unlikely to have been relevant except that the death of an Ellen PRYKE, at the age of 80, is recorded in 1937<sup>10</sup>. The death was registered in Ipswich, so this may indeed be the same Ellen.

Appendix 035M – Lewis REED (c1815 – 1896)

A Lewis REED, the second son of Lewis and Ann (Diana) REED, was born in Plaistow, Essex, on 17 OCT 1806 and baptised the following month<sup>1</sup>. It seems, from the available evidence, that he died; and another son was born about 1815, and named Lewis (see later in this section). However, there is no evidence, from the NBI or elsewhere, that confirms this.

Towards the end of 1838 he married Caroline, who was some six years younger than he. This could have been either Caroline DUNCAN or Caroline Wright HART<sup>2</sup>. Whichever she was, she had been born in Aveley, Essex (which is now very close to the northern end of the Dartford Crossing of the River Thames).

Lewis and Caroline, together with their family, have been found in each census return from 1841 to 1891 (and each one consistently gives his date of birth as 1815). They first lived in Church Street, West Ham<sup>3</sup>, where the first three children were born. The family then moved to Bromley (by Bow) where they lived in various parts of George Street<sup>4</sup>. By 1881 they had moved to Poplar<sup>5</sup>; they were still living in the same street (albeit at a different address) in 1891<sup>6</sup>.

Lewis's age, as reported in each of the various census returns, indicates that he was born in about 1815, whereas the baptism register for All Saints, West Ham, clearly shows a Lewis REED born and baptised in 1806. It is possible that the Lewis that married Caroline was from a quite different family, but the death of Sarah Lillistone (Lewis's sister) was registered by her niece, Eliza C. Reed (that is, Lewis and Caroline's eighth child), so it is almost certain that this is the correct family. It is more likely that the Lewis born in 1806 died and a later brother was also named Lewis.

He died in early 1896, and the age was given as 80<sup>7</sup>, which reinforces this supposition. However, the baptism registers of All Saints, West Ham, show no baptism of a Lewis REED around 1815, and the IGI provides no clues.

Caroline's age as given in the various census returns was inconsistent. The first three, 1841-1861, give either 1815 or 1817, whereas the following three give 1822. She died at the age of 78 in early 1900<sup>8</sup>, confirming a birthdate of 1822.

William REED (1840 – 1904)

No registration of William's birth has been found. He is shown in the 1851 census return<sup>1</sup> as an errand boy; by the age of 21 he was a 'dock labourer' like his father<sup>2</sup>. He married Matilda BATES in 1863<sup>3</sup> and they set up home in Bromley, in the same street as his parents; by the time the 1871 census was taken<sup>4</sup> they had three sons and a daughter. Ten years later<sup>5</sup> they had moved to a different address, still within Bromley, and the family had grown in size to five sons and two daughters.

By 1891 a further four children had been added to the family<sup>6</sup> and the census return records that they had moved again, to a house about one mile north of the East India dock.

Ten years later they were still at the same address<sup>7</sup>, with seven children living at home – the eldest, Matilda, is shown as a widow but her married name is not given. The family has not been found in the 1901 census return. A possible death for William was in 1904<sup>8</sup> (it was registered in Hackney); Matilda died in 1908, and her death was registered in Poplar<sup>9</sup>. Both were 64 when they died.

Sarah Eliza REED (1841 – ?)

Sarah's birth was registered in 1841<sup>10</sup>. She appears in the 1851 census return as a child of ten, and ten years later was

She seems to have married Thomas SMITH in the last quarter of 1860<sup>11</sup>. There are several possibilities for her in the 1861 census return but the most likely is as a servant in the household of Mr & Mrs R GREENWOOD, in Stoke Newington<sup>12</sup>, although this states that she was unmarried and still using her maiden name. A more definite entry, though, is found in the 1871 census<sup>13</sup> which shows Sarah with husband James and four children. This would, at first sight, appear to show the wrong husband but the following census return, that of 1881<sup>14</sup>, shows James and Sarah now living in Bromley; their daughter Louisa is the right age for a daughter of ten years earlier and living with them is 'brother-in-law' Edmund REED, Sarah's younger brother.

No later conclusive record has been found.

George REED (1844 – ?)

No conclusive birth reference for George has been found; there is no reference in either West Ham or Poplar in 1844. He does appear in both the 1851 and 1861 census returns, living with his parents in Bromley; in the latter he is a 'dock labourer'. In 1866 he married Harriet RUSSELL<sup>1</sup>. She was, presumably the daughter of Richard and Harriet RUSSELL, in whose house George and Harriet were lodgers at the time of the 1871 census<sup>2</sup>. They had one daughter, Rosanna. George and Harriet have not been found in a later census return, although there is a possible sighting of Rosanna as a 15-year-old servant working for and living with the HOARE family in Marylebone<sup>3</sup>.

Alfred REED (1847 – 1913)

Like his elder brother George, Alfred is shown in both the 1851 and 1861 census returns at home with his parents. Towards the end of 1870<sup>4</sup> he married Sarah BUSK, and by the time of the 1871 census they had a daughter, Caroline, and were sharing a house in Bromley<sup>5</sup> with Joseph VESLANDER, who was from Colchester. In 1880 Sarah died aged only 31<sup>6</sup> – possibly in childbirth? – and the census return of the following year<sup>7</sup> shows Alfred, now with four children, in a house with Mary BUSK, described as an aunt (although she was, presumably, a younger sister of Sarah, and therefore a sister-in-law). She was shown as being unmarried, but with a 11-month-old daughter Beatrice, described as Alfred's niece.

In 1883 Alfred married again<sup>8</sup> to Martha LLOYD, a widow with children of her own. By 1891 they were living in Brunswick Road, Bromley, with two of his children and three of hers. Alfred was a 'stevedore'.

Alfred's second marriage lasted only 14 years or so, for Martha died towards the start of 1897<sup>9</sup>. Four years later Alfred was a 'visitor' to William MONK; both men were widowers, with Alfred now a 'general labourer'. He died, aged 66, in 1913<sup>10</sup>; he has not been found in the 1911 census return.

Henry REED (1849 – )

Henry was the fifth child of Lewis and Caroline; his birth was registered in 1849<sup>11</sup>. He was living with his parents until at least 1871, when he was 22<sup>12</sup>, and he later married<sup>13</sup>. The 1881 census return shows Henry and Marguerite, with a seven-year-old daughter<sup>14</sup>. The family has not been found after 1881 but a possible death for Margaret was in 1884<sup>15</sup>.

Charles Edmund REED (1851 – 1899)

Charles was born around the beginning of March 1851<sup>1</sup>. Before he reached the age of twenty he married Charlotte ALLEN<sup>2</sup>, who was about three years younger, and by the time of the 1871 census<sup>3</sup> they were living in Poplar. It is possible that an imminent birth was the reason for a marriage at such a young age, but if there was a baby it didn't survive; the 1881 census return<sup>4</sup> shows Charles and Charlotte with two children, Charlotte (1875) and Thomas (1879).

Ten years later<sup>5</sup> there were two more daughters, Caroline (1884) and Clara Louise (1886) but Thomas was not present.

Charles died, aged only 48, in 1899<sup>6</sup>. By the time of his death there were three more children: Rose F (1889), Louis E W (1891) and George A (1894), as shown by the 1901 census return<sup>7</sup>. The return also shows that Charlotte had returned to the same road in which she was living in 1881, albeit in a different house. Somewhat oddly, Rose F does not appear in the 1891 census although she would have been 2.

Charlotte had moved by 1911<sup>8</sup>, to another part of Bromley. She probably died in 1925, aged 74<sup>9</sup>.

Edmund REED (1854 – 1920)

035MG

Edmund, the seventh child, was born in 1853<sup>10</sup> although he is recorded in most census returns as being a year or two younger.

Like his father and other brothers, he started his working life as a labourer and until the age of at least 17 was living at home with his parents. The census return of 1881 shows him as a 'dock labourer' aged 26 and living with his sister Sarah and her husband James (see above).

He married Ellen LEGG in 1885<sup>11</sup> and six years later<sup>12</sup> they were living in Teviot Street, Bromley, where they stayed for twenty years or more. Seven children have been found – the youngest, Walter, being the 'seventh son of the seventh son'. At the time of both the 1901<sup>13</sup> and 1911<sup>14</sup> census returns Frederick MUNDAY was part of the household; he was described as a nephew. He was the son of Caroline, one of Edmond's younger sisters.

Edmund died at the age of 66 in 1920<sup>1</sup>; Ellen survived him by eight years and died in 1928<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> he is recorded as being 1 month old in the census return of that year; there are three births registered in Q2/1851 at Poplar but two have a second forename – so the birth reference is 2 355

Caroline REED (1855 – 1900)

Caroline's birth was registered, in Poplar, in 1855<sup>1</sup>. She married Edward MUNDAY in 1879<sup>2</sup>; two years later they were living in West Ham. Two children have been found: Frederick (1885) and Charles (1890). Edward died in 1896<sup>3</sup>; Caroline died four years later in 1900, aged 42<sup>4</sup>. As we have already seen, Frederick went to live with his uncle Edmund (see previous section); Charles went to his aunt Louisa.

Eliza REED (1858 – ?1918)

Eliza was born towards in early 1858<sup>5</sup>. The various census returns show that she was living with her parents until at least 1891, by which time she was 32. Two years before this, in 1889, she had registered the death of her aunt, Sarah LILLISTONE (nee REED, her father's sister). No marriage or later census entry has been found; a possible death was in 1918<sup>6</sup>.

Louisa Florence REED (1861 – 1934)

Louisa Florence's birth was registered towards the end of 1861<sup>7</sup>. Like her sister Eliza, she lived with her parents until at least 1891 but towards the end of that year she married Walter JACOBS<sup>8</sup>, who had been born in Constantinople. He was a few years younger than Louisa. The following census return, that of 1901, shows Walter and Louisa living in West Ham, providing a home for Charles MUNDAY, the orphaned son of her elder sister Caroline. By 1911 they were living in Upton Park (part of West Ham) in a 6-roomed house and providing a home for Walter's widowed father Robert, a marine engineer. Charles MUNDAY was still with them but they had no children of their own. Louisa died in 1934<sup>9</sup>.

Frederick James REED (1864 – ?1935)

Frederick was the 11th child, and the youngest. His birth was registered in Poplar, as were those of all his siblings, in 1864<sup>10</sup>. By 1881 he was an apprenticed wheelwright, living at home<sup>11</sup> with his parents and two elder sisters. He married Clara KOLLER in 1887<sup>12</sup>. Four later Frederick and Clara had moved some four miles, to Bromley<sup>13</sup>; they had one daughter, Agnes (1889) and one son, Louis (1890). Ten years later, the 1901 census shows that the family had moved back to West Ham, and there were now an additional two children: Mabel (1892) and Frederick (1898). By 1911 they had moved again, this time a matter of a mile or two, to Plaistow. Son Lewis (Louis) had left home but the five other children were living with their parents. A likely death for Frederick was in 1935<sup>1</sup>.

Appendix 017M – Sarah Ann LILLISTONE (1835 – ?1876)

Nathaniel and Sarah's eldest daughter, Sarah Ann, was born on 15 DEC 1835 and baptised on 29 MAY 1836.

By the age of 25 she was a live-in general servant in the household of Edwin and MARIA SPRING, who lived in Islington<sup>1</sup>.

She married William Jeffrys GRIFFIN, a licenced victualler, at St Botolph Parish Church, Aldgate, on 13 JUL 1868<sup>2</sup>. William was a widower; the address of both Sarah and William was given as 'Aldgate'. Their fathers were, respectively, Nathaniel and William<sup>3</sup>.

By 1871 they were living in Marylebone<sup>4</sup> with Emily GRIFFIN, a 15-year-old niece who was a barmaid, and four servants. Their address was 'The Globe' in Upper Marylebone Street. Sarah's place of birth is recorded, a little oddly, as Southwark; that of William was London Cornhill.

No record of any children from this marriage has been found.

It's not clear what happened to Sarah after this. She hasn't been found in the 1881 census, and so she may have died by that time. There are two possibilities of a death for her: one, registered in Shoreditch, in 1876 at the age of 42<sup>5</sup> (YoB 1834); the other, registered in Southwark, in 1877 also at the age of 42<sup>6</sup> (YoB 1835). Of the two, the former is the more likely.

The same census return (1881) shows a William GRIFFIN, widower, living at 2 Suffolk Place, Battersea, with four servants<sup>7</sup>. He was aged 47 and thus born in 1834; his trade was that of butcher; but he had been born in Hampton, Middlesex. This is not necessarily the correct entry, but no other likely ones have been found.

Appendix 017N – Janet Eliza LILLISTONE (1842 – 1890)

On 13 JAN 1842 when Janet, Nathaniel and Sarah's third daughter, was born<sup>1</sup> the family was at 2 Caroline Street in Ratcliffe, a district of Stepney. She was baptised on 12 JUN 1842.

The 1861 census return<sup>2</sup> shows that by the age of 19 she was an assistant to a draper, John UPTON, and living in Stepney.

It seems that she chose a career instead of marriage: in the 1871 census<sup>3</sup> she was single, a 28-year-old draper's assistant and a visitor at the home of Caroline and May LAKER, two sisters living in Horsham. Ten years later, in the 1881 census<sup>4</sup>, she was still single and gave her occupation as 'Saleswoman'. On census night she was again a visitor, this time in the household of William and Helen KEMP at 48 Wandle Road, Croydon.

She died, still a spinster, at the age of 45 (she was actually 48) on 27 NOV 1890<sup>5</sup>. Her given occupation was that of housekeeper, and she died at 6 Queens Crescent, Kentish Town. Her will<sup>6</sup>, proved on 09 APR 1891, states: "The Will of Jenet Eliza Lillistone formerly of 2 Dawson Terrace, Haverstock Hill, but late of 6 Queen's Crescent, Kentish Town, both in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, who died 27 November 1890 at 6 Queens Crescent was proved at Principal Registry by John Upton of 2 Dawson Terrace Merchant the sole Executor." Her personal estate was valued at £534 1s 5d. If, as seems likely, she was housekeeper for John Upton and his wife Jane it is likely that she would have 'lived in' at Dawson Terrace but perhaps moved to Queen's Crescent (which is only just around the corner) when she became ill. It is likely that she was an employee of John UPTON for much of her life.

Appendix 0170 – Mary Honnor LILLISTONE (1844 – 1889)

Two years after Janet's birth a fourth daughter, Mary Honor, was born on 15 MAY 1844<sup>1</sup> at 12 London Street, Ratcliff, and baptised on 15 SEP the same year. Her birth certificate shows her as 'Mary Honnor', with LILLISTON as the surname<sup>2</sup>. Nathaniel is indeed a carpenter, but Sarah's maiden name is given as REEVES. The 1851 census return<sup>3</sup> shows her aged 7 at home in Mile End Old Town with her mother Sarah and four siblings.

There is no trace of her in the 1861 census return, but on 22 DEC 1863<sup>4</sup> she married John BOLUS, who was about 14 years her senior, at St Philip's in Newark Street (this is directly off Sidney Street running towards the west). Although her age is given on the certificate as 21 this was not correct – she would have been only 19. John was the eldest child of five: his father, Charles, and two of his younger brothers were bootmakers, as was John. At the time of the census in 1861<sup>5</sup> the BOLUS family was living in Anns Road, Stepney; two years later, at the time of their marriage, John was living at 12 Charles Street, with a profession of 'artist', and Mary was at 4 Sidney Street.

By 1865 they had moved from Stepney to Bow, for the birth of their second and third children; the 1871 census<sup>6</sup> shows them at 3 Usher Road, in Bow. By this time John's profession appears to be that of 'boat maker' but is probably 'bootmaker'. In 1875, when Edwin was born, they were at Limehouse but by 1881 the family was back in Bow, further along the same road<sup>7</sup>, with four children. This census entry shows Mary aged 34, giving a birthdate of 1847. Rather surprisingly, the census return gives John's occupation as something entirely different – 'landscape artist'. He had perhaps been influenced in his new choice of career by near neighbours, Richard COUCH and his son Thomas, who were picture dealers.

Mary's death, at the age of 43, was registered in Bethnal Green<sup>8</sup> in the first quarter of 1889. By the time of the next census<sup>9</sup> John, who was once again a 'bootmaker', was living in Bromley with Edwin and Walter. He hasn't been found in the 1901 census return, but he died aged 73 in 1902.

Percy (1866 – 1890)

0170A

Percy's birth was registered in Poplar in 1866<sup>10</sup>. At the time of the 1881 census he was a 'packing case maker (card)', aged 15 and still living at home with his parents in Bow. He died, aged only 24, in 1890<sup>11</sup>.

Jannet Eliza (1868 – ?)

Jannet (or Jennet) was born in 1868 and her birth registered in Poplar<sup>12</sup>. In 1887 she married Hugo KLEIN<sup>1</sup>. He was about five years older than Jennet and came from Copenhagen; the 1891 census return shows Hugo and Janet with two children living in Islington; with them was Kate, a 7-year-old sister-in-law (so presumably Janet's sister). This presents a fresh puzzle, as although the birth of a Kate BOLUS was registered in 1884, the registration was in Birmingham<sup>2</sup>.

Ten years later, the family had moved to Fulham<sup>3</sup>. Hugo is shown as Hugh – possibly a mishearing by the enumerator, as the following census return shows him as Hugo once more. He was a confectioner by trade, and the next (1911) census return<sup>4</sup> shows that all his children followed him into the business; the address was Kensal Rise, where there may have been a family shop. Altogether there were five children, but by 1911 one had died – presumably between Ernest and Violet.

Hugo died in that census year (1911)<sup>5</sup>; no death has been found for Jennet.

Edwin (1875 – 1936)

0170C

Like those of his elder siblings, Edwin's birth was registered in Poplar<sup>6</sup>. He has not been found in the 1901 census return, but in 1904, aged about 29, he married Ellen BROOKS<sup>7</sup>, who was about ten years older than he. They are recorded in the 1911 census return in Hackney, living in three rooms; no children are shown. Edwin was a boot repairer. His death was registered in Islington, in 1936<sup>8</sup>.

Walter Samuel (1878 – 1927)

Walter's birth was registered in 1878, also in Poplar<sup>9</sup>. In 1897 he married Emma SUSSEX<sup>10</sup>. The 1911 census return shows Walter, an insurance superintendent, and Emma living in four rooms in Waltham Cross; no children are apparent. His death was registered in Hammersmith in 1927<sup>11</sup>.

Appendix 017P – John William LILLISTONE (1846 – 1913)

The youngest child – a boy at last – was born on 18 SEP 1846<sup>1</sup> at 9 George Street, Commercial Road, and baptised John William on 21 MAY 1848. His birth was registered in Ratcliff again, this time shown as a sub-district of Poplar. Although he appears in the 1851 census return<sup>2</sup>, living with the rest of the family, in common with all the others he has not been found in the census ten years later.

On 05 DEC 1870 he married Mary Ann BURKE<sup>3</sup> at Poplar Parish Church. Both he and Edward, Mary Ann's father, were mariners. At this time his address was Gough Street while Mary Ann, his junior by two years, lived in Suffolk Street. The certificate gives no indication that his father Nathaniel had died, although he had done so earlier that year.

The family hasn't been traced in the 1871 census, but it has been found in the 1881 census<sup>4</sup>, showing four children with ages ranging from seven to four months. John's profession is 'foreman & cab driver'. However, daughter Mary died the same year, aged only two<sup>5</sup>.

The next census return, that of 1891<sup>6</sup>, shows John W, still a cabman, living in Bethnal Green alone but for an 'adopted daughter', 15-year-old Jessie CRESSWELL, who had been born in Manchester. John is shown as a widower, although no death of Mary has been found – but neither has she been found in the census. Rather sadly, two of the children (Henry and William) appear as inmates in the 'District South Metropolitan School District (Poor Law)' in Herne, Kent<sup>7</sup> along with scores of other children from the same part of London. Somewhat surprisingly, perhaps, the cover of the enumeration book confirms that this is Herne Bay, rather than Herne [Hill] in south London.

The same census records a John William LILES aged 18 as an inmate of 'The Boys Home', St Pancras; whilst this is not conclusive it is at least a possibility for the eldest son. It was described as a 'Certified Industrial School', which implies that he might have been learning a trade; it was in Regents Park Road.

The only likely possibility in the 1901 census return for John (the father) shows him married to Elizabeth and living in Islington. He was a 'Hackney carriage driver' aged 54, born in Limehouse – the John W in the 1881 census was a 'foreman & cab driver' aged 34 and born in Limehouse. The evidence is reasonably conclusive that these are one and the same – and apparently he had remarried following the death of Mary Ann. But the ONS records no marriage of a John LILLISTONE between the one we know about, in 1870, and one that was registered in Ipswich in 1907. It seems, therefore, that John and Elizabeth weren't married, although they were presumably living together as husband and wife.

That may have been just as well, because the 1901 census also records an (unmarried) Mary A LILLISTONE as a visitor in the household of Frederick and Lilian YOUNG, in Mile End Old Town<sup>8</sup>. She was aged 53 and had been born in St George's East – the Mary in the 1881 census had also been born in St George's East but was aged 31.

Was there some family scandal? It seems, on the face of the evidence above, that some time between 1881 and 1891, possibly as a result of daughter Mary's death, John and Mary split up and the three boys went into what we should now call 'care'. The connection with Jessie CRESSWELL, the 'adopted daughter', is a bit of a mystery. After some years John formed another partnership with an Elizabeth (it is unlikely we shall ever know who this was) although, as his wife Mary was still alive, Elizabeth and John were unable to marry.

John and Elizabeth were still together at the time of the 1911 census<sup>1</sup>, and living in one room. The census form described their 'marriage' as having lasted 24 years – that is, from 1887, which is possibly, according to the theory just outlined, the time when John and Mary split up. Mary also appears in the census<sup>2</sup>, living in one room as a 'lodger' in Bethnal Green; the previous entry shows the family of Edmund and Caroline BEEBY with no fewer than seven children living in three rooms, and George and Elizabeth BAKER (plus two children) in two rooms, all at the same address. The next entry shows yet another family, all living at 6 Tagg Street. In contrast to her entry in the 1901 return, Mary indicated that she was married (46 years, giving 1865 (not 1870) as the date of her marriage) and that the marriage had produced four children, one of whom had died.

Mary Ann's death was registered in Bethnal Green, in the third quarter of 1913<sup>3</sup>; John died, aged 67<sup>4</sup>, just a few months later. His death was registered in Islington. Did they meet again before they died? Were they aware of each other and where each lived? Probably not. Not surprisingly, there is no death of an Elizabeth LILLISTONE registered.

What of the three remaining children? None has been found in the 1901 census.

John William is recorded in the 1911 census living in Trowbridge, Wiltshire, with a wife of four years and two young sons: John William (1908) and Norman Bastin (1910). He had married Alice BASTIN in 1907<sup>5</sup>; the marriage had been registered, oddly, in Ipswich. His occupation was given as 'Gunner, Royal Horse Artillery', which perhaps explains his absence from the previous census return. His wife, Alice, had been born in Devon and their elder son in Christchurch, Hampshire.

It seems that Henry also joined the Artillery, as he has been found in the 1911 census return where he is shown as a 'Gunner' at the Barracks at Plympton St Mary, Devonshire. A likely death for Henry was in 1943, when he was aged 66<sup>6</sup>.

William<sup>7</sup>, the youngest son, joined the Royal Marines and was based in Portsmouth. Here he met Elizabeth MAIDMENT, whom he married on 11 NOV 1905<sup>8</sup>. He was stationed at Eastney Barracks while Elizabeth, a few years younger than he, was living at 126 Reginald Road. They had two sons: William<sup>9</sup> (1906) and Arthur James<sup>10</sup> (1908). ## Appendix 008N Martha GREEN with Sarah [008O], Hetty [008T] and Ada [008U]

Of these four daughters, Martha Janet Mary and Sarah Jane were the two eldest and Hetty Helena and Ada the two youngest. None of them married<sup>1</sup>.

All the births were registered in Lambeth: Martha in 1860<sup>2</sup>, Sarah in 1862<sup>3</sup>, Hetty in 1874<sup>4</sup> and Ada in 1879<sup>5</sup>.

Sarah has not been found in the 1881 census; there are several instances of a Sarah GREEN living as a servant but none is conclusive. At the same time the other three sisters were living with their parents in Granby Buildings<sup>6</sup>. Martha, aged 20, was a laundress.

Ten years later, in 1891, by which time their mother had died, Ada was the only one of the four still at home, living with her father, her elder sister Susannah and her brother John William. Martha has not been found in this census, but she appears later, so perhaps she was never recorded. Sarah and Hetty (who was twelve years younger than Sarah) were both servants at the same address in Bread Street<sup>7</sup>; they were both shown as 'liveried servant'.

In 1901 the census return shows Sarah and Hetty were still together at the same address<sup>8</sup>: Sarah was a housekeeper and Hetty a domestic servant. They would have been 38 and 26 respectively. The other two of this quartet, Martha and Ada, were living together in Heyford Avenue, Lambeth<sup>9</sup>.

By 1911 Sarah and Hetty were still together, still with the same occupations, and still at the same address<sup>10</sup>. Martha and Ada were also still together; they were living in Balham<sup>11</sup>, and had been joined by their brother William as well as a 'niece', Susan AINGE. She was the daughter of their sister Susannah (who had died in 1905 – see Appendix 008Q on page 46).

Later still Hetty moved in with Martha and Ada. There is a story (from Roger Goode<sup>12</sup>) that as elderly ladies Hetty and Ada were conned out of their life savings.

Martha died in 1925<sup>13</sup>; a likely death for Sarah was in 1941<sup>14</sup>. Ada lived until 1969 and died aged 89<sup>15</sup>. No record of a death for Hetty has been found.

Appendix 008P John William GREEN (1864 – ?)

John's birth was registered in Lambeth in 1864<sup>1</sup>. In 1881, at the age of 16, he was a printer's assistant, still living in Granby Buildings<sup>2</sup> with his family. No record of him has been found in the 1891 census, but it is likely that he married Sarah Elizabeth GLOVER that year<sup>3</sup> although the marriage was registered in Holborn.

By 1901 he was a builder's labourer, and married with three children. The census return for that year<sup>4</sup> shows the family living in Bermondsey. His wife was also from Lambeth and was some nine years younger than he: the children were Ada (8), John William (7) and William H (5). Another child had died.

The 1911 census return lists him as a 'sawyer, slate'; the family was living in Camberwell<sup>5</sup>, with the three children still at home. A likely death for John was at the age of 61 in 1926<sup>6</sup>.

Appendix 008Q Susannah Eliza GREEN (1867 – 1905)

A scholar in 1881<sup>7</sup>, Susan was still living at home ten years later<sup>8</sup> and employed as an 'ironer/wash[er]woman'. She married George AINGE in 1893<sup>9</sup> and by 1901<sup>10</sup> they had three children; George (1884), Ada (1888) and William (1900). It is likely that a fourth child, Susan, was born in 1903<sup>11</sup>.

Susannah died in 1905 aged just 38<sup>12</sup>, and in 1909 George married again, to Mary Ann MARSH<sup>13</sup>, a widow. The 1911 census return shows George and Mary living in Battersea<sup>14</sup> with George's sons George and William, John and Albert MARSH from Mary's first marriage, and Robert and Louisa, the two children from the second marriages.

Ada, George's daughter, was living (or staying) with her grandfather Thomas and his new wife Mary (see above).

Appendix 008R Kate Elizabeth GREEN (1869 – 1954)

Kate was born on 23 FEB 1869, and appears in the 1891 census<sup>1</sup> as a servant (cook and general domestic) to the BELL household in Vauxhall.

She married Charles William GOODE<sup>2</sup> shortly after her 29th birthday on 01 MAR 1897<sup>3</sup>, and they appear in the 1901 census<sup>4</sup> living in Clapham. Charles, some 18 years her senior (and a widower), was a 'cab proprietor' from Much Marcle in Herefordshire. The census shows two children: Caroline, aged 11, presumably his daughter from an earlier marriage, and Lily E, aged 3.

The 1911 census return shows Charles and Kate living in Brixton with six children. The return states that seven children had been born within this marriage, of which two had died. The children were Cissie (1889)<sup>5</sup>, Lily (1897)<sup>6</sup>, Georgie (1903)<sup>7</sup>, Ivy (1904)<sup>8</sup>, Kate (1907)<sup>9</sup>, and Edward (1909)<sup>10</sup>. There were two registrations of a Charles William at Wandsworth between 1899 and 1901<sup>11</sup>; both died in infancy. It is likely that these are the two deaths referred to in the census return.

Kate died on 01 JUL 1954 in Leeds.

Appendix 008S William GREEN (1873 – ?)

William is listed in the 1881 census, aged 8. In the next census, that of 1891, he is shown as 'John W' and is a 'craneboy'.

He hasn't been found in the 1901 census, but ten years later<sup>12</sup> he was living with this sister Martha in Balham, where he was an 'assistant traveller'.
